Independent filmmaking

The Plymouth Independent Film Festival is scheduled for July 21-24. Twenty feature films, documentary and fiction, short films and animation will be chosen for screenings at various downtown locations. The panel accepts work in progress. The four-day festival will feature discussion groups, panels and workshops.

Monday, June 27, there will be a golf tournament at Squirrel Run Country Club, Plymouth, to benefit the film festival. Check-in time is noon and tee-time is 1 p.m. Four-somes: $300. Cost includes prime rib dinner at Sean O'Toole's after the game. Contact Steve Huntley at (508) 224-7307 or e-mail steve@plyfilmfest.org.

July 23, "Jaws" will be screened on the lawn overlooking Plymouth Harbor. "Courage and Stupidity," a 30-minute spoof on the making of "Jaws," will run as well.

Visit www.plyfilmfest.org for submission forms and information or call Lisa Mattei, festival director at (508) 801-2530.
